

Using filters to limit results

Too many results? You can limit your results in a variety of ways.

- Books: To limit your results to books, check the box: "books & ebooks." If this option does not appear, click on "show more."
- Articles & scholarly articles: To limit your results to articles, check the box: "articles." If you want scholarly articles, click on "peer reviewed journals."
- Date: Want recent results? Or particular years? Click on the publication date filter.
- Subject: Is your subject too broad? Click on the subject filter to narrow down your topic. The options in this list are generated from existing search results. You can click on multiple boxes at once. You can also exclude options.
- Location: Click on "Laurier Library," "Laurier Locations," or "Other Omni Locations" to find where your resource is housed.
- Language: Click on "Language" to find resources in different languages.
